Restaurant Walk Update

We're thrilled to announce that Il Naso is the 18th participant in our Restaurant Walk, and new owner Sam Turner cannot wait to meet you! Check out our lineup here of fabulous, local Ketchum restaurants that will open their doors to guests for one of our most highly anticipated events. EVENTS Additionally, you'll be happy to know that the Bluebird Day Café will be catering at Sawtooth Brewery during their beer tasting. Local craft beer and delicious, casual fare? Sounds amazing!

Presenter Spotlight: Jackie Quillen

Jackie would like to share with you some of the tasting tools that she has developed over her career. As she explains, tasting, especially blind tasting, with proper discipline can increase your fun and enjoyment (you'll be so satisfied to "nail" a wine in a blind tasting!). During her Wine Tasting Boot Camp CLICK HERE, which takes place on September 22nd at 3:00pm, she hopes to hone your tasting skills so that you can begin to achieve exactly that!
