

ENGAGE WITH THE HARVEST FESTIVAL COMMUNITY

Wow. It seems like only a few days ago we were sharing sparkling wine in Memory Park. Oh right, because we were! The 2014 Sun Valley Harvest Festival was a blast, with lots of fun, food, and new friends. Thank you all for sharing and joining us for another great week celebrating the culinary delights of the Wood River Valley, Idaho, and the Northwest.

We had many people expressing interest in sharing their photos, connecting with new friends, and reliving those recent great memories. Please do. We love to see your joy, and are curious about your comments or suggestions. There are several ways you can join in and help grow our Sun Valley Harvest Festival Community.
